VALENTINE'S DAY.—To-day, the 14th of February, is sacred to St. Valentine. It was a very old notion, alluded to by Shakspeare, that on this day birds begin to couple. Hence, perhaps, arose the cus-tom of sending on Valentine's Day letters containing professions of love and affecCITY COUNCIL.

First Branch. At the last meeting of the City Council any odinance repealing an ordinance subscribing to the capital stock of the Wheeling & Ohio Union Railroad Company was passed in the First Branch by a majority vote. As it requires a two-thirds vote of the members present to thirds vote of the members present to pass an ordinance, a meeting of this Branch was called last evening for the further consideration of said ordinance. In the absence of the Mayor, Mr. Hall was called to the chair, and the following members answered at roll-call: Messra. Blair, Boring, Cowen, Dunning, Hall, Handlan, Kelly, Roberts, Schambra, Shallcross, Stone, Wallace.

On motion of Mr. Blair, the consideration of the ordinance was postponed for twenty minutes.

The action of the Second Branch at its last meeting, in relation to the claim of Mrs. Rebecca S. Trowbridge and Zachariah Webb, for damages awarded by the Circuit Court of Ohio county, was concurred in.

The ordinance repealing the subscription to the Wheeling and Ohio Union Railroad Company was then passed, by the following vote:

FIRE LAST NIGHT.—About half-past nine o'clock last night Cept. William Shanley, the vigilant Main street night the cellar of the large toy establishment of B. S. Bloch, No. 1212 Main street, be-tween 12th and 14th streets. Capt. Shanley first discovered the smoke in the alley in the rear of the building, and promptly gave the alarm. Ten minutes elapsed. afterward the Atlantic steamer was on the ground and in six minutes had a stream of water in the cellar from the alley. The United and Vigilant steamers soon arrived, and the former threw a stream into the cellar from the front. Officers Henry and Exley took charge of the front of the all the local packets arrived and departed of the ordinance was postponed for twenty building, and prevented the crowd from breaking in the doors. In forty minutes the fire, which was confined to the cellar, was extinguished. A lot of straw, rags, etc., was burned, but the damage to goods, which was entirely by water, is omparatively slight. How the fire orignated is unknown.
